
BIOGRAPHY

Name & Affiliation

Harteraad (The Cardiovascular Council) is the Dutch patient association for people with cardiovascular diseases.

What do we do? Provide information, arrange contact between fellow patients, and provide lifestyle counselling and advocacy both regionally and nationally.

Harteraad believe that it's important for the voices of cardiovascular patients to be heard. With their experiences either as a patient or a family member, Harteraad can tackle the sticking points in healthcare and strive for higher quality care.

Harteraad is partner of the Health Fund 'Dutch Heart Foundation'

Biography

Anne-Margreet Strijbis works as policy advisor at Harteraad. Her background is nursing en she studied sociology. She's interested in the organisation of health care and her ambition is to give patients the influence they should have in health care: patient participation at all levels.