
BIOGRAPHY

Name & Institute

Stephan C. Bischoff, M.D.

biography

SC Bischoff studied Medicine in Germany and France. After a postdoc time in Clinical Immunology in Switzerland, he moved to Gastroenterology at the Hannover Medical School/Germany. He received specialist degrees in Internal Medicine, Gastroenterology, Allergology and Nutritional Medicine. 2005 he was appointed Full Professor and Chair of Nutritional Medicine at the University of Hohenheim. 2012-14 he was President of the DGEM, From 2014 on he is the guideline officer of ESPEN. His major research interests are obesity, disease-related malnutrition, the gut barrier and the microbiome.